

Table –Key Interventions and Relevant Paragraphs of the Doha Declaration

Key interventions of the Global Coalition	Relevant Paragraphs of the Doha Declaration
Equitable food systems / transition to formality	Para 29 (Call to Action). "We will adopt a holistic approach towards the eradication of poverty in all its forms and dimensions (...) In this regard we commit to: a. Taking effective measures, including policies and programmes, to address the root causes of poverty and underlying causes of inequality, providing for the basic needs of all and increasing resilience for interconnected crises. These efforts should include the elimination of hunger and malnutrition; the provision of social protection, food security, education, livelihood, employment, decent work for all, clean water and sanitation, adequate shelter and reliable health systems; and participation in social and cultural life, with special priority given to the needs and rights of women and children and persons in vulnerable situations, who often bear the greatest burden of poverty."
Equal Pay International Coalition (EPIC)	Para 30 (Call to Action). "We reaffirm our commitment to promote inclusive and sustainable economic growth, full and productive employment and decent work for all." Para 38 (Call to Action). "We reaffirm the need to achieve gender equality and the empowerment of all women and girls and to ensure the full and equal enjoyment of all human rights and fundamental freedoms by all women and girls throughout their life course and that all legal, social and economic barriers to their empowerment are removed."

Sustainable Investment for Social Justice	Para 30 (Call to Action). "We reaffirm our commitment to promote inclusive and sustainable economic growth, full and productive employment and decent work for all." Para 42 (Call to Action). "We welcome the ambitious package of reforms and actions under the Sevilla Commitment to close the financing gap with urgency and catalyse sustainable development investments at scale, in which we commit to take concrete actions to enhance fiscal space, address debt challenges of developing countries and lower the cost of capital and to provide and mobilize additional, innovative, adequate, affordable, predictable and accessible financing from all sources, recognizing the comparative advantages of public and private finance."
Productivity Ecosystems for Decent Work	Para 30 (Call to Action). "We reaffirm our commitment to promote inclusive and sustainable economic growth, full and productive employment and decent work for all." Para 42 (Call to Action). "We welcome the ambitious package of reforms and actions under the Sevilla Commitment to close the financing gap with urgency and catalyse sustainable development investments at scale, in which we commit to take concrete actions to enhance fiscal space, address debt challenges of developing countries and lower the cost of capital and to provide and mobilize additional, innovative, adequate, affordable, predictable and accessible financing from all sources, recognizing the comparative advantages of public and private finance."
Responsible Business for inclusive and sustainable societies	Para 30 (Call to Action). "We reaffirm our commitment to promote inclusive and sustainable economic growth, full and productive employment and decent work for all."

AI for social impact	Para 30 (Call to Action). "We reaffirm our commitment to promote inclusive and sustainable economic growth, full and productive employment and decent work for all."
Human Rights Economy	Para 30 (Call to Action). "We reaffirm our commitment to promote inclusive and sustainable economic growth, full and productive employment and decent work for all." Para 21 "We are convinced that addressing today's challenges to social development requires strengthening internal solidarity, upholding human rights, building trust, and a renewed commitment to multilateral action on the attainment of social development and the implementation of the sustainable development agenda in its social, economic and environmental dimension. We will advance innovative solutions, and inclusive internal cooperation to fully translate the commitments of the Copenhagen Declaration and Programme of Action and social dimension of the 2030 Agenda into concrete actions to achieve social development for all, in particular to the benefit of developing countries"
Advocating for Social Dialogue as a governance tool for promoting social justice	Para 30 (Call to Action). "We reaffirm our commitment to promote inclusive and sustainable economic growth, full and productive employment and decent work for all."
Initiative on living wages	Para 30 (Call to Action). "We reaffirm our commitment to promote inclusive and sustainable economic growth, full and productive employment and decent work for all."
A Just Transition towards Environmentally Sustainable Economies and Societies for All	Para 36 (Call to Action). "We commit to address the adverse impacts of climate change, biodiversity loss, desertification and drought and environmental degradation which pose challenges to social development, particularly in developing countries. "

Global Accelerator on Jobs and Social Protection for Just Transitions	Para 30 (Call to Action). "We reaffirm our commitment to promote inclusive and sustainable economic growth, full and productive employment and decent work for all."
Centre of Excellence on Inequalities	Para 29 (Call to Action). "We will adopt a holistic approach towards the eradication of poverty in all its forms and dimensions (...) In this regard we commit to: a. Taking effective measures, including policies and programmes, to address the root causes of poverty and underlying causes of inequality, providing for the basic needs of all and increasing resilience for interconnected crises. These efforts should include the elimination of hunger and malnutrition; the provision of social protection, food security, education, livelihood, employment, decent work for all, clean water and sanitation, adequate shelter and reliable health systems; and participation in social and cultural life, with special priority given to the needs and rights of women and children and persons in vulnerable situations, who often bear the greatest burden of poverty." Para 30 (Call to Action). "We reaffirm our commitment to promote inclusive and sustainable economic growth, full and productive employment and decent work for all." Para 31 (call to Action): "we commit to: Reducing inequalities within and among countries (...) and universal access to basic services including healthcare, education, access to safe and affordable drinking water and adequate and equitable sanitation and hygiene, adequate housing, electricity, digital infrastructure and connectivity, and social protection"
Cotton partnership	Para 29 (Call to Action). "We will adopt a holistic approach towards the eradication of poverty in all its forms and dimensions (...) In this regard we commit to: a. Taking effective measures, including policies and programmes, to address the root causes of poverty and underlying causes of inequality, providing for the basic needs of all and increasing resilience for interconnected

	crises. These efforts should include the elimination of hunger and malnutrition; the provision of social protection, food security, education, livelihood, employment, decent work for all, clean water and sanitation, adequate shelter and reliable health systems; and participation in social and cultural life, with special priority given to the needs and rights of women and children and persons in vulnerable situations, who often bear the greatest burden of poverty." Para 42 (Call to Action). « We welcome the ambitious package of reforms and actions under the Sevilla Commitment to close the financing gap with urgency and catalyse sustainable development investments at scale, in which we committed to take concrete actions to enhance fiscal space, address debt challenges of developing countries and lower the cost of capital and to provide and mobilize additional, innovative, adequate, affordable, predictable and accessible financing from all sources, recognizing the comparative advantages of public and private finance.”
Empowering youth for social justice	Para 38 (Call to Action). "We reaffirm the need to achieve gender equality and the empowerment of all women and girls and to ensure the full and equal enjoyment of all human rights and fundamental freedoms by all women and girls throughout their life course and that all legal, social and economic barriers to their empowerment are removed."